

Sweet Potato, Squash and Apple Soup

NIBBLEDISH CONTRIBUTOR

Ingredients

1	medium	kabocha	squash,	cubed
---	--------	---------	---------	-------

- 3 large sweet potatoes, cubed
- 3 carrots, chopped
- 3 apples, cubed
- 1 red onion, chopped
- 2 stalks celery, chopped
- 4 cups broth (chicken or veggie)
- 2 cinnamon sticks
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 2 tablespoons ginger, minced
- 3 tablespoons honey

Kosher salt

Olive oil

Instructions

- 1. In a large bowl, toss squash, sweet potatoes, apples, half of the red onion and half of the chopped carrots with the ginger and garlic. Swirl in a bit of olive oil and a sprinkling of salt. Roast on two sheet pans in a preheated oven at 425 degrees for 35-45 minutes or until pieces have softened and browned. Set aside once done.
- 2. As vegetables roast, mix celery, and remaining carrots and red onions in a deep pot. Swirl in a tad more olive oil and heat over a medium high flame, stirring to make sure vegetables brown but do not burn.
- 3. Once veggies in the pot have begun to go translucent, approximately 5-10 minutes, pour in broth and add cinnamon stick. Bring to a boil, then reduce to a simmer and cover. Allow to cook until carrots and celery are soft but not mushy, approx. 10-15 minutes.
- 4. Spoon roasted vegetables into simmering vegetables, pour in honey and stir just until everything is just incorporated. Pull out cinnamon stick. Ladle into a blender or food processor and blend until the soup reaches your preferred consistency. (Add more broth if you prefer a very smooth, puréed soup.) Salt to taste and serve with a healthy sprinkling of parsley.
