Instructions

Tomato & Herb Focaccia was used but any bread you like would be great as well.
Great for breakfast or as a snack.

1. Slice the green/red pepper, yellow onion, and chicken tenders (button mushroom optional).
2. Heat a saucepan with oil and cook the chicken tenders, adding the rest of the ingredients after the chicken is cooked.
3. Sprinkle some salt and pepper to taste.

Preparing the bread

Spread a thin layer of butter and tomato sauce on the bread. Slice your choice of cheese into stripes. Arrange the cheese and pizza spread on the bread. Put it in the oven to melt the cheese and for a crispier crust. Ready to serve!
