Mix everything together and marinate for as long as you like. Half an hour is fine but the longer the better.

Then just BBQ till done. This marinade is also really nice on portioned chicken pieces barbequed:)

HALOUMI

Coat the haloumi in flour, fry in a little bit of oil and squeeze lemon juice on top while it's cooking. Only takes about 1.5 minutes on either side.

BRUSCHETTA

Mix everything in a bowl and grate the parmesan on the top.

WARNING: eat with someone who doesn't mind garlicky, onion breath and rib sauce all over your face:)
